CLAIM FOR RELIEF

19. Plaintiff, STEPHEN FLANAGAN, as a Trustee of each of the Fringe Benefits

Funds, repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in paragraphs 1 through 18.

20. Shop Steward Reports for the period from week ending June 22, 2018 through week ending September 9, 2018 reveals that defendants have failed to make contributions to the Fringe Benefit Trust Funds when due for the period from week ending June 22, 2018 through week ending September 9, 2018 in the total amount due and owing in the amount of $7,406.64.

21. Interest and liquidated damages on all of the aforementioned delinquencies are accruing from the date due and continuing until payment is received under § 502(g)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2)).

22. Attorney's fees accrued in collection of the unpaid contributions are owed as required by § 502 (g)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2)).

23. Defendants have been notified of the total amounts due and owing and have failed to pay any of the fringe benefit contributions owed to the Funds in contravention to the Agreements and § 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1145).

24. This claim for relief seeks a permanent injunction against defendants pursuant to §§ 502(a)(3) and 502(g)(2)(E) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. §§ 1132(a)(3) and 1132(g)(2)(E)).

25. Defendants have no meritorious defense to the claims for relief set forth in the Complaint, either in fact or in law and has simply sought to avoid payment of the contributions owed by them to the fringe benefit funds or to delay payment thereof.

26. The fringe benefit funds have and will incur considerable nonrecoverable expenses in pursuing unpaid contributions such as increased administrative overhead, lost investment income, attorneys fees and other legal costs.

27. The nonrecoverable expenses are ultimately borne by the participants, pensioners and beneficiaries of the fringe benefit funds by way of reduced benefits and this is inequitable.

28. Accordingly, defendants should be permanently enjoined from failing or refusing to pay contributions to the fringe benefit funds in accordance with the terms and conditions of Agreements, all in violation of § 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1145).

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs demand judgment in accordance with § 502(g)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)):

$7,406.64 in delinquent contributions for the period from week ending June 22, 2018 through week ending September 9, 2018;

1. Interest on the delinquent deficiency from the date due and owing through date of entry of judgment as required by § 502(g)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2));

owing through date of entry of judgment as required by § 502(g)(2) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2));

4. Judgment, in accordance with § 502(g)(2)(E) of ERISA (29 U.S.C. § 1132(g)(2)(E)), permanently enjoining the defendants from failing or refusing to pay contributions owed by them to the Fringe Benefit Funds in); and accordance with the Agreements in violation of § 515 of ERISA (29 U.S.C. 1145

5. For such other legal or equitable relief as this Court deems appropriate.
